Obituary

Deborah Louise Humphrey was born to Minnie and Marvin Musick on October 26, 1960. After the death of her mother (Minnie) passing in 1962, Deborah was legally adopted by her mother's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Humphrey. She grew up and blossomed in her home with her new parents. She was adopted in 1963.

She attended Zion Temple Baptist Church and accepted Christ as her Saviour. She was baptized by Dr. C. Albert Henson and assigned to the Children's and Youth Department.

She attended local schools, graduating from Regina Caeli Catholic High School here in Compton, California and went on for two years to Compton Community College. She was very active in the Children's and Youth Departments. She was a member of the Deborah Youth Council of the Order of the Eastern Star; the Council named for her, under the leadership of Comrade Mary L. Caldwell. Deborah was active and likeable young lady.

She was married to Jimmie Hood and to this union one daughter was born, Robin Nicole was born. The marriage was short lived. Several years later she remarried to Suresh Gautam and to this union twin boys were born, Kumar and Luese.

After a short illness she departed this life on Tuesday, March 26, 1991. She leaves to treasure her memory, a husband, Suresh; twins, Kumar and Luese Gautam; mother and father, Bro. and Sister Bernard Humphrey; one daughter, Robin Nicole Hood; one brother, Robert Thomas and sister-in-law, Charlene; a father, Marvin Musick and a host of nephews, nieces, other relatives and friends.
